Still SUAIN

About Still Suain

Still Suain is an Irish sleep brand, founded by Ais in Cork in 2025. It began with a simple aim: to help people sleep better, with silk essentials that make winding down easier and nights more restful. The range is sold online across Ireland and stocked at Ballyfin Demesne.

The name comes from the Irish word suain, meaning a gentle drift into dreams. That sense of calm guides everything the brand makes, from the choice of silk to the gift box each piece arrives in.

Our Products

Every piece is designed in Cork and made in Suzhou, the silk capital of the world, from GOTS and OEKO-TEX certified 23 momme, 6A grade organic mulberry silk.

The range covers sleep masks, pillowcases, bonnets and scrunchies, alongside three gift sets.

Restful nights make for brighter days, and good silk should be made to last.
